6. Other T&Cs

a. You cannot benefit from and subscribe to different Bundles simultaneously. If you subscribe to a Bundle whilst you are already subscribed to another one, your last subscription will cancel the previous one and any megabytes remaining from the previous subscription shall be lost.

b. Each Bundle has a time window as per Term 2, which shall start running upon receipt of an SMS confirming the activation of your Bundle.

i. Upon expiry of your time window, you shall automatically be charged for the price of the Bundle (as indicated in Term 2), and the Bundle shall be re-activated for another 7 or 30 days according to your Bundle. You will be notified via an SMS to this effect. Any remaining megabytes shall not be forfeited and shall therefore be carried forward to the next purchase of the same Bundle.

ii. If, upon the expiration of the time-window, you would not have sufficient credit (less than the price of the specific Bundle) remaining in your account, you will be notified of the same via SMS. In this case, any remaining megabytes shall be forfeited. The Bundle subscription will however remain active for 30 days. Upon topping-up your account during these 30 days, the price of the Bundle (as indicated in Term 2) shall automatically be deducted from your credit and you shall be able to benefit from the Bundle again. Once this amount has automatically been deducted, you shall be notified by SMS. Upon the expiration of the 30 day time-window you must re-subscribe in accordance with Term 4 in order to benefit once again from one of these Bundles.

iii. If you are subscribed to any of the Bundles in term 2.1 to term 2.5 and use up all the megabytes of your Bundle before the expiration of the 7 day time-window, you shall thereafter start using up any megabytes forming part of your tariff plan. If you are not subscribed to any such tariff plan containing an internet bundle, you shall automatically be charged according to the prepaid plan you are subscribed to at the time until the expiration of the said time-window. Thereafter the Bundle will be reactivated for another 7 or 30 days in accordance with this term 6(b)(i).

iv. If you re-subscribe to the same Bundle before its time window expires, the time window shall be refreshed.

v. You may check your usage at any time by sending a blank free SMS to 16290.
